Remember the saying "The Oldies but the goodies"? Well this group of young ladies are bringing back the sound of the 50's and the 60's. Ponytails, circle skirts, saddle oxfords & bobby socks all ready to swing to the sound of that good ole' rock'n'roll! Last Wednesday Donna Paulette, Cindy Guill, and Mary Parris were selected among other 4-H'ers in the State to perform at the Richmond State Fair. They sang songs from the good ole' days entitled: "In the Mood", "Johnny Angel", "Dum-Dum", and Da-Do-Run-Run. Accompanist for the group is Debbie Rush. All girls are Seniors at ACHS and are active members of the Appomattox Community 4-H Club, and the Lucky-Clover 4-H Club. The girls will be performing for various organizations at Gretna, Farmville, and in the Appomattox area. If you are looking for any type of humorous entertainment contact any one of these girls.
